- (g) whether any concurrent evaluation of IAY has been made; and
- (h) if so, the details thereof?

Answer

MINISTER OF STATE FOR RURAL DEVELOPMENT (SHRI SUBHASH MAHARIA)

(a)& (b): The budget allocation, physical targets and achievements state-wise and year-wise under Indira Awaas Yojana for the Ninth Plan period is Annexed. as the budget allocation and targets under Indira Awaas Yojana are fixed on a year to year basis, therefore, it is not possible to indicate the budget allocation, physical targets and achievements for the last year (2001-2002) of the Ninth Plan period.

(c),(d)& (e): As the data suggest, achievements under Indira Awaas Yojana has been reasonably satisfactory. Constant monitoring and evaluation together with stringent practices for release of funds is used to ensure that correlation between the physical and financial target is maintained adequately.

(f),(g)& (h): The Ministry of Rural Development elicits monthly and annual progress reports from all States/UTs. Area Officers are designated to visit different parts of the country regularly and ascertain through field visits whether the programme is being implemented satisfactorily and whether the construction of houses is in accordance with the prescribed procedure. The Ministry of Rural Development also holds regular review meetings with State Governments and Workshops with Project Directors of DRDAs where all programmes are reviewed. The Ministry is at present undertaking a concurrent Evaluation of Indira Awaas Yojana.
